News of Whitewood.

Whitewood, Va., Aug. 8.
James W. Ball has moved his family to Sward's Creek.

Andy Johnson has gone to Blackford to visit his family.

Nick Robinson was a visitor at the home of Felix Cales on last Sunday.

John Gilbert's home was gladdened the other day by the arrival of twin boys.

Dr. E. C. Carr had the misfortune to get his foot badly mashed by the dummy last week.

Bert Calley moved his family back to Clintwood last week, where the children can attend school.

Mr. Fulton and Chapman Gillespie are both kept very busy these days supplying the mill with logs.

Mrs. Adkins and B. R. Johnson have each moved to and now occupy residences on Fulton Avenue.

G. G. Harris has grown so enthusiastic over political conditions that a Democrat is scared to pass this way these days.

John H. Bird has been very busy for several days overhauling the dinky of H. Fugate, which will be comparatively new when completed.

John Parsons has moved with his family to Strawberry Hill. He informs us that a large copperhead was killed in the house which he so recently vacated.

After being blessed by an oat crop that is the best for fifteen years, also plenty of berries, cherries and apples and a fine prospect for corn, we are then thankful that we live in the Ninth congressional district, where everything is Republican through and through.

G. G. Harris says that for the benefit of the Roanoke Times, "Governor" Smith and our Mr. Beverley, he wishes it known that the quill used by him in writing his famous poem was plucked from the crow recently served by Taylor Elyson at a harmony dinner given to the Democratic editors of Virginia.

At this meeting "Governor" Smith was selected as toastmaster but declined the honor saying, he was hungry and would rather be postmaster than toastmaster, as he hadn't tasted pie since the days of Grover.

The Best Hour of Life

is when you do some great deed or discover some wonderful fact. This hour came to J. R. Pitt, of Rocky Mt., N. C. when he was suffering intensely, as he says, "from the worst cold I ever had." I then proved to my great satisfaction, what a wonderful Cold and Cough cure Dr. King's New Discovery is. For, after taking one bottle, I was entirely cured. You can't say anything too good of a medicine like that. Its the surest and best remedy for diseased lungs, Hemorrhages, LaGrippe, Asthma, Hay Fever any Throat or Lung Trouble. 50c. $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by John E. Jackson, Druggist.

Another Resignation in Order.

Richmond News Leader: We fully agree with our esteemed contemporary, the Ledger-Dispatch, that if Senator Owen desires to "avoid criticism," he would do well to resign the office which he holds as assistant commissioner of agriculture. For him to resign his seat in the State senate in order to accept this office is ludicrous in view of the plain law. Suppose what is, of course, not conceivable, that he should thereby "avoid criticism," what does he propose to do about the constitutional provision, which distinctly prohibits a member of the general assembly being appointed to an office of profit "during the term for which he was elected"? To seek to evade this plain provision of law by resigning his seat in the senate before the end of the term for which he was elected is simply childish. Let the senator resign, or, if he does not resign voluntarily, let the commissioner of agriculture ask for his resignation, and thus clear himself of being a persistent party to a flagrant breach of the constitution of Virginia.

His resignation as senator is very well, so far as it goes. One who has so little conception of his senatorial obligations as to accept the office of assistant commissioner of agriculture during the term for which he was elected can well be dispensed with as a law maker. But the really important thing is for him to resign an office which he attempts to hold he will do so in plain, flat violation of a specific provision of the constitution of the State.

Death of a Good Woman.

Mary E. Johnson was born in Russell county, Va., in June, 1854. She joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, when quite young, and was converted shortly thereafter. On the 8th day of October, 1903, she was united in marriage to I. N. Boyd, of Buchanan county, a minister of the M. E. Church, South, and the father of Methodism in Buchanan, and lived happily with him to the hour of her death. She was always on the altar for Christ's cause, and her religious zeal was only intensified by the fervency with which her husband worked and wrought for the advancement of the Lord's kingdom.

Sister Boyd experienced very poor health during the last two years of her life, but she bore her sufferings with patience, and was at all times cheerful and happy; and only a few minutes before she was called out into the Great Unknown and almost with her last breath she announced her readiness to go, that the way was clear and that she was leaning on the promises of God, and requested her husband that he keep her church dues paid up in full.

Thank God for such women. She is not dead, but has only fallen asleep in the arms of her Savior. A large concourse of friends were present to pay a last tribute to their departed Christian benefactor when she was laid to rest.

E. G. SMITH,
Pastor West Buchanan Circuit.

$100 Reward, 100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for full particulars. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

THREE MEN KILLED IN SMYTH.

Fearful Results of Boiler Explosion at Saw Mill in Rich Valley.

On Tuesday of last week a distressing accident occurred in Rich Valley, in Smyth county, about three miles east of Chatham Hill, when the boiler of a saw mill owned by John G. Willis Anderson, of Graham, who was so badly burned about the hand several weeks ago at Flat Top Yards, has about recovered. It was feared at the time he might lose his hand, but fortunately this proved not to be the case.

Music at the Big Appalachian Exposition

The management of the Amusement Committee of the Appalachian Exposition at Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 12 to Oct. 12, seems to have been thoroughly awake to the importance of having music for the idea alone of pleasing the masses as well as the masses. In securing Weber's Cincinnati Band and Brooks' Chicago Band they have certainly struck the keynote of success, and the finest music ever given at an exposition will be heard during the holding of the Appalachian Exposition.

The Louisville Courier-Journal, speaking of Weber's Band, says: "Never have the people of Kentucky known such a band as Weber's, which played at the State Fair. Not only for excellence and proper musical interpretation or for the qualities of each musician to turn himself into a song bird, calloper, or a whistle, but for general good humor, indefatigable work and cheerfulness with which they responded to requests for encores did Weber's Band make itself famous."

Brooks at Pittsburgh.

A quotation from a letter received from the manager of the Pittsburgh Exposition verifies the foregoing by the following:

"All those who visited the exposition during the season will remember with a thrill of pleasure the hours through which they sat entranced listening to the always wonderful music of the Ellis Brooks Band. On every hand could be heard such exclamations as, 'Is this selection better than the last?' 'Is it possible anything could be sweeter?' 'Can it be that those instruments are but wood or silver and the performers only men?'"

Lessons for Farmers at Appalachian Show

Possibilities of Making Farming Pay Without a "Money Crop."

It will be one of the objects of the Appalachian Exposition, at Knoxville, Tenn., September 12 to October 12, next, to demonstrate to the farmers, cotton planters, and to the world at large, the possibilities of making farming pay without dependence on a money crop, such as cotton and tobacco. With this end in view a great agricultural display building will be constructed which will hold exhibits from the mountain portions of the eight States included in the Southern Appalachian country.

Persons not acquainted with the Blue Ridge and connecting ranges of mountains have little conception of the forage, feed and fruit potentialities of this region. Buried gold, metaphorically speaking, lies waiting for the men earnest enough and energetic enough to dig for it.

Art Exhibit

Chairman Branson Discusses Plans of That Department.

Lloyd Branson, chairman of the Art Committee, in speaking of the Art Department of the Appalachian Exposition to be held in Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 12 to Oct. 12, said:

"The management has granted the Art Committee all that has been asked for, and the committee is alive to giving the people a display, the like of which has never before been seen in the South. All the artists of the South will be represented, but it is not to the Appalachian district alone that the Art Committee is looking; they mean to have some notable pictures that the public read about, pictures from the big places. The general public has its favorites as well as the art profession. They are not always the same, but the province of expositions is to give the whole people something, and this the Art Committee of the Appalachian Exposition expects to do.

"At the Cotton States Exposition there was a splendid exhibition of pictures, gathered from all parts of the world, yet the people clamored for the showing of 'Parting of the Ties,' and it was gotten there after the exposition was quite half over and proved a drawing card. So with the Appalachian Exposition, some pictures, and some one particular picture, that all wish to see, will be on exhibition. The public will, from time to time, be kept informed as to the work in progress. It is too early now to give out any definite statement of the pictures to be secured."

Plain Talks on Fertilizers

Increasing and Safeguarding the Wheat-Crop

The use of commercial fertilizers on the wheat crop is yearly becoming more general—proof enough that it pays, and pays well.

Too many farmers, however, use fertilizers without due regard for the special needs of their soils. Often they buy the cheapest grades. Or they use very small quantities.

That such unscientific use of fertilizers has proved profitable indicates what it can accomplish for wheat growers if used more carefully and intelligently.

The best way to learn just what fertilizers will pay you best is to make comparative tests on a small scale with your soils—then use a sufficient amount and you will undoubtedly increase not only the average yields, but your profits as well.

Write to the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company for its new Year Book or Almanac, a costly 180 page book, written by government and private experts. It shows how and why you can increase your crops three or four fold by following modern agricultural methods.

A postal to any of the Company's offices given below will bring a copy by mail free of charge.
